

Sinclair Broadcasting's plan to air their program on John Kerry is a clear violation of requirement for equal time for each candidate. As such, they are not providing for the public good, but compromising it, and are abusing the privilege of free access to the airwaves.

Should they proceed with airing this program, they should provide equal time for rebuttal of the claims therein. Barring this, they should be prevented from showing the program.